

6 tips
for an unforgettable

Boudoir Shoot!

Chicago Boudoir

PHOTOGRAPHY

1 IT'S OKAY TO BE NERVOUS

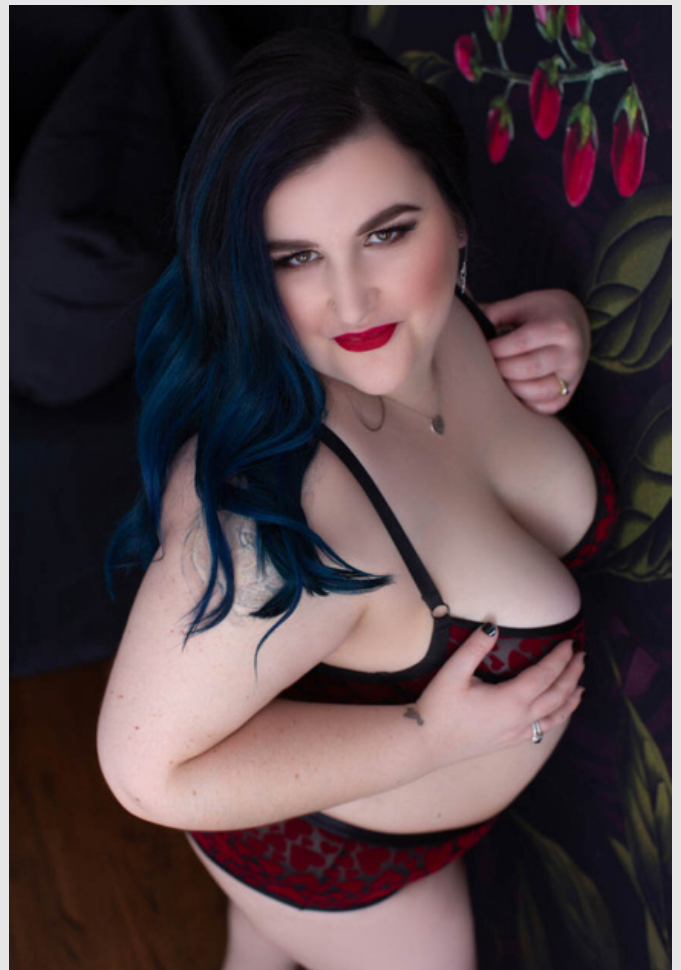

Unless you're already a professional lingerie model, you probably haven't done something like this before. Stepping out of your comfort zone is part of the fun of a boudoir shoot! We'll be with you every step of the way.

IMAGINE HOW YOU WILL ENJOY YOUR FABULOUS PHOTOS

Picture yourself opening up your closet and seeing a gorgeous framed photo of yourself. Or what about leaving a leather bound album underneath your partner's pillow as a birthday surprise? So many fun options!

3 TRY ON YOUR OUTFITS AT HOME

The wardrobe items that photograph best are always pieces that fit well and that you love! We also have a stash of accessories and props at the studio that you can borrow, including shoes, jewelry, robes, wedding veils, garters and more.

GET YOUR LIES READY 4

Not that we endorse lying...;) But you might want to keep this boudoir shoot a surprise. If you need to explain why you're packing up a bag full of lingerie, just say that you're headed to the dry cleaner. Will someone ask why you're coming home looking so fabulous? Just say that you stopped by the mall and someone was giving away free makeovers.

LEAVE THE DETAILS TO THE EXPERTS

Every shoot includes on-site professional hair and makeup to get you camera ready. And you don't need to practice posing. We will use studio lights to flatter your body and tell you exactly what to do with your hands and face.

MAKE PLANS TO GO OUT AFTER YOUR SHOOT

You're going to look amazing and feel empowered after your boudoir shoot - don't let that sizzling energy go to waste!

I can't wait to hear from you!
